89th Season 2025-2026

GQ (Gentlemen's Quartet)

Friday, September 19, 2025 - 7:00 pm

GQ (Gentlemen's Quartet) is a modern, elegant take on some of the most famous music ever written, fusing together multiple genres in a perfect symphony of sophistication, virtuosity, and humor. Comprised of cello/mandocello, electric guitar/bass, percussion, piano and violin, with special appearances by female vocalist Erin Shields, their concerts offer audiences a new, often deeper, way of listening to music. Featuring a multitude of musical genres, their repertoire includes selections like "Adagio," "New York 'States' of Mind," "Don't Stop Believing," "Rhapsody Overload," and much more!

Duo Beaux Arts - Thursday, October 30, 2025 - 7:00 pm

Duo Beaux Arts features international award-winning husband-and-wife concert pianists Dr. Catherine Lan and Steinway Artist Tao Lin. Having performed in prestigious venues around the world like Carnegie Hall, Victoria Hall, Kadriorg Palace and more, this duo has made a name for themselves as one of the most in-demand, accomplished piano duets in the industry. Their program features selections by composers like Bach, Beethoven, Brahms, Debussy, and many more, and brings world-class entertainment and musicianship to audiences of all ages!

The Swon Brothers - Tuesday, February 10, 2026 - 7:00 pm

Known for their seamlessly smooth, tight-knit sibling harmonies, The Swon Brothers were thrilling audiences long before their appearance on national television. Since releasing their major label hit "Later On," the brothers have garnered industry honors and nominations, with nods from the Country Music Association, the Academy of Country Music, and the CMT Music Awards. In addition to writing and producing their own music, the duo co-wrote and perform on the title track of Blake Shelton's album Body Language. Their concerts feature covers of songs made famous by the stars that inspired them, including hits like "Should've Been a Cowboy," "Somewhere in San Diego," and "Southern Draw," as well as a few of their own originals.

Analisa & John present "The Italian American Dream"

Sunday, March 29, 2026 - 2:00 pm

Old souls with an affection for their culture and a love for rich, passion-filled music, Analisa and John take audiences on a journey that traces each of their Italian family's immigration to the United States. Filled with both Italian music and selections from the Great American Songbook, the husband-and-wife duo highlight the ways in which Italian-style music weaved its way into the fabric of multiple styles of American music throughout the decades. Featuring acoustic and electric guitar with rich vocals, their concerts may feature familiar songs by artists like Stevie Wonder, Dean Martin, John Denver and many more!

How Sweet It Is!: Steve Leslie sings James Taylor

Sunday, April 19, 2026 - 2:00 pm

Grammy Award-winning songwriter and recording artist Steve Leslie performs the music of Rock 'N Roll Hall of Fame singer-songwriter James Taylor in an authentic and spell-binding concert event. Steve's warm baritone vocals, exceptional guitar technique, and uncanny resemblance, is truly a one-of-a-kind tribute to this American music icon. Accompanied by piano, Steve's program will feature some of Taylor's biggest hits of all time including, but not limited to, "How Sweet It Is (To Be Loved By You)," "Fire and Rain," "Carolina In My Mind," and more!

Concerts held at Wenatchee High School. Evening concerts start at 7:00 pm and Matinees at 2:00 pm - Doors open at 6:30 pm and 1:30 pm
